

WALRAVEN TÜRKİYE INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY

As Walraven Türkiye, we consider quality, environmental responsibility, and occupational health and safety as integral parts of our operations. With our production approach aligned with international standards, we address our products, processes, and working environment through a holistic perspective, aiming to be a reliable solution partner for our customers and business partners. While carrying out our activities, we act with a sustainability mindset, fulfilling today's needs while being mindful of our responsibilities towards the future.

Our Values – Take the LEAD

At Walraven, every employee contributes to the process with their knowledge and experience. We embrace a culture of collaboration, open communication, and collective thinking, fostering continuous development together.

L – Lead

We embed quality throughout our processes and adopt a responsible, safe, and customer-focused way of working.

E – Eliminate

We reduce complexity by simplifying processes and support efficient and safe ways of working.

A – Adapt

We value adapting to changing customer expectations, technological developments, and environmental requirements.

D – Develop

We support employee participation through a culture open to learning and development and approach our processes with a mindset of continuous improvement.

Our Approach Aligned with Our Values

The Value of Smart – Creating Value with Smart Solutions

We understand customer needs and deliver solutions that combine ease of use with quality.

Stronger Together

We build trust-based collaborations with our employees, suppliers, and business partners.

Continuous Improvement and Compliance with Standards

We base our approach on compliance with applicable legal requirements and international standards, while maintaining a mindset open to improvement.

Sustainability – For Today and Tomorrow

We consider environmental impacts and resource use in our activities and adopt an approach aimed at the prevention of pollution.

Smart Future through Digitalization

We value making our processes simpler and more effective through digital solutions.

As Walraven Türkiye, this integrated management system policy represents a common approach for all our employees and is embraced as a part of our corporate culture.
