Subject: Statement on Sourcing and Sanctions - Russia & Belarus

Date: January 2026

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Walraven Europe B.V. maintains a strict zero-tolerance policy regarding business with Russia and Belarus. Due to the ongoing geopolitical situation in Ukraine and the associated risks of violating international sanctions, Walraven Europe B.V. strictly prohibits sourcing, importing, or using any raw materials, components, or products originating from Russia or Belarus, and to best of our knowledge, we do not engage in business with entities owned, controlled, or otherwise associated with Russian or Belarusian nationals.

We carefully verify all suppliers and retain all relevant mill and compliance certificates to ensure that our products and supply chains remain fully compliant with all applicable EU and international sanctions related to Russia and Belarus.

Walraven Europe B.V. remains fully committed to ethical business practices and continuous compliance with all relevant regulations. We monitor geopolitical developments closely to ensure our operations adhere to current legal requirements and best practices.

Sincerely,
